POSITIONING

Premium, elegant fine-dining

The name

TaMaSha carries its meaning in three syllables - a small story, rooted in Mandarin, of the feminine, the maternal, and the power to clear away what weighs us down.

Tā

She / Her

The feminine - grace and welcome held at the heart of the house.

Mā

Mother

Nourishment and care - the warmth and generosity of a mother's table.

Shā

Remover of negativity

A place that lifts what weighs on you - you leave lighter than you came.

Together, Ta·Ma·Sha welcomes you like her, feeds you like a mother, and sends you out a little lighter.

The wordmark

The wordmark 'TaMaSha' is displayed in a large, high-contrast serif font. The letters are dark red. The lowercase 'a's are stylized with a gold horizontal bar (macron) over them. The word is centered within a thin gold rectangular border.

The TaMaSha wordmark is set in a high-contrast Cormorant Garamond, refined for a fine-dining register. The alternating capitals - TaMaSha - give the name its rhythm.

The signature element is the gold bar - a macron (ā) - set over every lowercase a. Three bars, evenly weighted, become an ownable mark: elegant, deliberate, unmistakably TaMaSha. Always keep the bars gold and level.

Signage

Engraved bordeaux on brushed brass for the exterior plate - quiet, premium, legible at a distance. Keep generous clear space around the wordmark.

BRAND IN USE

Indoors, the same wordmark works reversed in cream or gold on the wine walls, or as the brass medallion emblem on doors and hosts' stands.

On social

Food photographed warm, close and low-lit on our wine and walnut tones. A cream wordmark sits over a soft dark gradient, with the handle opposite - consistent, never cluttered.

Steam, broth, and a slow evening.

The pause between courses.

Small plates, big spectacle.
